Guidance, inspiration, courage, and light.

How visitors move through ashleyeadysmith.com, on phone and desktop

First hello

The first time someone visits, her signature writes itself, then settles into the top corner as the site's mark. Under 3½ seconds; one tap skips it.

01 The pen starts at the left flourish

02 Her name writes itself

03 A soft glow behind the ink

04 It flies up into the header

05 The home page: sky, name, promise
